

East Carolina University Adventure Leadership Program

Photographic Consent, Waiver and Release

I hereby release and discharge ECU from any and all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of my/my child's photograph, name, likeness or voice, including without limitation any and all claims for libel or invasion of privacy.

Trip Refund Policy

ECU Adventure Program reserves the right to cancel a program due to inclement weather, natural disasters, or extenuating circumstances. In the event the ECU Adventure Program must cancel a program, a full trip refund will be provided. Should a participant choose to cancel a program, the full cost of the trip will be refunded if the ECU Adventure Program is notified of cancellation fourteen (14) calendar days prior to any overnight trips' departure date or seven (7) days prior to any day trips' departure date. Any cancellation inside of these dates is ineligible for a refund unless the participant has provided a valid excuse such as hospitalization, family emergency or some other form of unforeseen hardship, which shall be determined on a case by case basis.

Zero Tolerance Policy

The ECU Adventure Program does not permit the use or possession of alcohol, firearms or illegal drugs while participating in activities or trips within the program. In signing this document, I/my child am/is agreeing to abide by this policy while participating in an ECU Adventure Program sponsored activity. If I/my child use/s illegal drugs, alcohol or firearms, I understand that I/my child will be immediately removed from the trip or activity and may face additional disciplinary action upon my return to East Carolina University. I further understand that should I/my child be removed from a trip or activity, I will be held responsible for all costs (which may be substantial, including additional airfare, taxis, etc.) incurred during my/my child's return to East Carolina University.

Please read the above policies and initial by each section.
